

Sustainable Building Partners

Press Release

A Just. Organization

Commitment to the employee experience.

April 1, 2023 - At SBP, we firmly believe that assembling a team of professionals who bring diverse experiences, perspectives, and backgrounds will lead to innovative solutions and meaningful outcomes. Furthermore, SBP continually strives to offer an inclusive environment in support of employee engagement and professional development that promotes a positive experience that translates into an impactful work product for our customers and partners.

SBP is pleased to announce that we have achieved the Just 2.0 Label (April 2023). Just is a voluntary disclosure tool and label developed by the International Living Future Institute (ILFI) that calls for organizations to demonstrate their commitment to social equity, the health and well-being of their employees, and the vitality of the communities in which they operate.
